

3rd Bi-annual E-learning and Virtual Exchange (VE) Workshop

Impact Research for Education 4.0: Teaching and Learning Methodologies to Assure Future Ready Graduates

Prof. Keiko IKEDA

Division of International Affairs,
Kansai University, Japan

29 Apr 2024 (Mon)

4 pm - 5 pm  zoom

All students and staff are welcome

Prof. Keiko IKEDA will touch on the current conceptualization of future skills on demand for higher education institutions (HEIs) graduates, discussed in the various literatures.

Our mission as HEIs is to design new school of education that would meet such demands; it includes methods such as digitally enhanced education, COIL/VE, and interdisciplinary approach for higher and deeper level learning.
